

Connecticut State Latin Day

Rules and Regulations

Please read these rules carefully and share them with your students before arriving at Holiday Hill. Your signature on the registration form indicates your agreement to accept and abide by these rules.

1. A school's participation in CSLD must be an official school activity or field trip.
2. Students and teachers must wear Roman dress. This is at least a tunic that decently covers the person. Judges disqualify anyone not in proper Roman dress. No bikinis are allowed.
3. Students must be current Latin or Ancient Greek students.
4. All chaperones must be approved by the school they represent.
5. Teachers are responsible for the conduct of their students. Any student who is a potential discipline problem should not come to CSLD.
6. Students are not allowed to bring backpacks into Holiday Hill.
7. CSLD is a smoke- and drug-free event. No student, teacher, staff or adult may smoke. No alcohol or drugs may be used by anyone.
8. No weapons of any sort or laser pointers may be brought to CSLD.
9. The management of Holiday Hill and the CSLD Committee reserve the right to inspect buses and bags for alcohol, drugs, cigarettes and weapons.
10. No student may drive to or on Holiday Hill property. Students arriving in student-driven cars will not be allowed to enter Holiday Hill.
11. There is no access to buses during CSLD.
12. There is no early dismissal for students. Students who must leave before the rest of their school should not come to CSLD.
